

CALL FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST - SECONDED NATIONAL EXPERTS

Job title	SNE – Research and Data Unit
Status	Seconded National Expert
Reference	SNE-RD-2020
Deadline for applications	16/10/2020 13:00 (Central European Time (CET))
Place of employment	Vienna, AUSTRIA

The European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA) is organizing a call for expression of interest in order to constitute a reserve list from which to fill vacant post(s) of Seconded National Experts in the Research and Data Unit.

1 BACKGROUND

The European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA) helps policy makers understand how they can do more for their citizens. It shares insights and raise rights awareness at the EU, national and local level. It does this by collecting and analysing law and data; providing independent, evidence-based advice on rights; identifies trends by collecting and analysing comparable data; helps better law making and implementation; support rights-compliant policy responses and strengthens cooperation and ties between fundamental rights actors.

The Research and Data Unit

The Research and Data Unit undertakes relevant, timely and high quality research and analysis on the situation of fundamental rights in the European Union.

The Unit collects evidence on the situation of fundamental rights in the EU using a variety of methods, including desk research, qualitative socio-legal studies, legal opinions, and large-scale quantitative surveys. Research findings are aligned with relevant law and policy, and results are typically presented as comparative reports and through interactive data tools.

The Unit is responsible for two Agency Programmes: (1) Just, Digital and Secure Societies, which covers areas such as access to justice and victims of crime, security, data protection, and the field of artificial intelligence; and (2) Fair and Equal Societies, which covers all grounds of equality and non-discrimination in different areas of life.

The Unit also provides key evidence and expert input to international organisations, civil society and academia, with regard to its research and data findings (e.g. as legal opinions and survey data), as well as its technical expertise (e.g. in the field of survey data collection).

2 DUTIES

The successful candidate will work in the Research and Data Unit under the supervision of the Head of Unit. She/he will also work closely with other members of the unit, as well as staff in other units.

The jobholder will support the work of the Unit in line with its research and data collection priorities in a given year, as set out in the Agency's Programming Document. He/she will draw on their expertise and knowledge to provide input to specific projects and their deliverables.

The function and duties of the post will be to:

- Undertake background research and in-depth analysis of research deliverables submitted by contractors, focusing on specific research projects covering several or all EU Member States
- Contribute to the drafting of different research outputs for publication – including reports and focus papers –, which should be to a high standard
- Support the work of specific research projects in line with the jobholder's area/s of expertise relating to the field of fundamental rights – legal; social science; statistics and data analysis
- Contribute to research project development, oversight and outputs with respect to key policy fields – at EU level – relating to the work of the Agency
- Contribute to project management; this includes tasks related to the overall planning, development, implementation and monitoring of projects – including oversight of quality of deliverables;
- Contribute to the drafting of technical specifications for contracting external work related to the work of the unit and ensure the timely execution of procurement procedures in close cooperation with the Corporate Services Unit; monitor payments and budget implementation according to contracts;
- Represent the Agency at meetings and events, and help organise internal meetings;

Duties applicable to all staff:

- Actively work towards the achievement of the goals of the FRA in accordance with the Strategic Plan;
- Perform any other work-related duties and responsibilities that may be assigned by the Head of Unit in the interest of the service.

3 ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

To be admissible for this selection, candidates must fulfil all the following conditions by the deadline for submission of applications:

General conditions

- Be employed by a national, regional or local public administration or an intergovernmental organisation (IGO), or an independent university or research organisation that does not seek to make profit for redistribution or is in fact part of the public sector;

- Resilience: remain effective under work pressure, be flexible and adapt to a changing work environment; encourage others to do the same and adjust own and team's approach to embrace changing circumstances.

<h2>5 SUBMISSION OF APPLICATIONS AND DEADLINE</h2>

Candidates are requested to submit their application electronically using the link available on the FRA website.

Only electronic applications will be accepted.

An application will be deemed admissible only if it includes:

- a CV in Europass format (other formats will not be considered);
- a motivation letter (preferably no more than one page);
- a fully filled in eligibility and selection criteria grid (done via the online application).

Applications must be sent no later than 16/10/2020 at 13:00 (Central European Time (CET)).

Information concerning the status of the selection procedure can be found at the following address:

<http://fra.europa.eu/en/about-fra/recruitment/vacancies>

Please note that due to the large number of applications we receive, the system may face problems in processing such amounts of data when reaching the deadline for submission of applications. We therefore advise to apply well ahead of the deadline.

In case you experience technical problems during your application, please contact, within the above-mentioned deadline, the e-mail address below providing an explanation of the issue:

6 EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

FRA urges anyone meeting the eligibility criteria and interested in the position to apply. FRA is an equal opportunities employer and encourages applications without distinction based on gender, colour, racial, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion or belief, political or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, nationality, age, sexual orientation or gender identity.

FRA encourages candidates with disabilities to apply. If you consider yourself to have a physical, mental, intellectual or sensory disability, please tick the appropriate box on the on-line application form and indicate any adjustments or arrangements, relating to your disability, so FRA can ensure your full and equal participation in the interview.

7 SELECTION PROCEDURE

A Selection Committee is nominated by the Appointing Authority of FRA.

Eligibility of candidates will be assessed according to compliance with all formal requirements by the closing date for the submission of applications (please see section 3 “Eligibility criteria”).

Only the applications of eligible candidates will be evaluated in accordance with the selection criteria as specified in the publication notice (see section 4 “Selection criteria”).

The Agency will invite for an interview the top 8 candidates among those who have obtained at least 60 %. The interview will mainly be held in English and it will take place in Vienna (Austria), where the Agency has its seat and where the place of secondment is. In case the COVID-19 situation does not allow candidates to have their written and oral exams at the FRA premises, all short-listed candidates will be invited for online written and oral tests. The short-listed candidates will receive further detailed information in due time.

Successful candidates will be included on a reserve list drawn up by the Selection Committee. This reserve list will be proposed to the Appointing Authority of FRA. The Appointing Authority will decide on the establishment on the reserve list. This reserve list will be valid for two years from the date of its establishment (the validity of the reserve list may be extended). The reserve list may be used for future secondment, should vacancies arise. All invited candidates will be informed by letter whether or not they have been placed on the reserve list. Candidates should note that inclusion on a reserve list does not guarantee secondment.

On the basis of the adopted reserve list, the Appointing Authority of FRA may offer a contract of secondment.

Please note that the Selection Committee's work and deliberations are strictly confidential and that any contact with its members is strictly forbidden.

The Agency regrets that only candidates selected for the interviews will be contacted.

8 CONDITIONS OF SECONDMENT

Seconded national experts are staff employed by a national, regional or public administration or IGO, who are seconded to FRA so that it can use their expertise in a particular field. The secondment will be subject to an exchange of letters between the Director of FRA and the representative from the sending employer.

A seconded national expert remains in the service of his/her employer throughout the period of secondment and shall continue to be paid by that employer. The SNE shall be entitled to a daily and monthly subsistence allowance in line with the MB Decision 2017/01³.

The initial period of secondment will be for one year, renewable up to a maximum of four years in total. The place of secondment shall be Vienna, Austria, where FRA is located.

9 DATA PROTECTION

Personal data shall be processed solely for the purpose of the selection procedure.

Please note that FRA will not return applications to candidates. The personal information FRA requests from applicants will be processed in line with Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data. This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.

Should the candidate have any query concerning the processing of his/her personal data, he/she shall address them to recruitment@fra.europa.eu.

For further information with regard to the processing of personal data, please see FRA's Privacy Statement.
